

The FINE PRINT on JOINING THE GRID

Welcome to the Grid. Registration in Project Blue World Inc. Consulting Agency's the Grid; Project Blue World Solutions Database provides new network and opportunity, as our reach grows so does yours.

You choose on your intake form whether to be public or confidential (you can change the privacy setting at any time by contacting us). We are glad to have you or your product in our listings. If your interested to become an agent representative of Project Blue World Inc. Consulting Agency please click here for more information.

Profiles renew annually. You will receive an automated reminder to renew, at which time you may also make adjustments, simply contact us to make a profile adjustment request.

Selling or fundraising direct from your profile listing. Your profile links to your website, fundraising or selling platform with your information. Customers contact sellers direct. Contracts are between purchasing and selling entities.

Receive referrals or access to work for Project Blue World Inc. If you are publicly listed in the Grid clients can find you direct. Alternatively, as customers reach out to us we may provide direct referral to you (we do not guarantee customers will require your services please do not contact us asking how referrals are coming). Should you require business and sales development support book an introductory meet for consulting services. We may contact you to provide services to us or to our customers on group contracts at which time a supplier contract with Project Blue World will be organized.

Project Blue World Inc. (PBW) does not guarantee items or persons listed in the Grid. Project Blue World Inc. does not guarantee your services, we may refer and introduce, customers purchase at their own risk. Should we receive complaints we will review, corrective action may include removing you from the Grid.

If you need help designing your profile or require other development support services book an introductory meet for consulting services.